

Dear Bronte Community,

A huge welcome to all of our new and returning students who have already arrived on campus! Students met this week with Guidance counsellors virtually through TEAMS, and fully vaccinated students received their student ID cards and uniform packages. This weekend is a long weekend celebrating the Labour Day, a national statutory holiday in Canada. Enjoy the extra day to sleep in – classes begin Tuesday morning!

ORIENTATION AND ONLINE LEARNING

To our new students – if you missed our orientation session on September 2nd, please check out the 2021 Orientation page on Microsoft Teams and view the recording so you are up to date on rules and expectations.

A reminder to all students in quarantine- you will have the opportunity to complete orientation activities after your quarantine is finished. Both in-person and online classes begin Tuesday, September 7th, at 8:20am EDT.

Students who have chosen to take temporary online classes until they can travel to Canada should by now have spoken with a Guidance counsellor. If you are deferring to the February intake, be sure to contact Admissions for revised documents.
