

Staff at Bronte is now all ready and geared up to welcome all our students back to in-person classes from Monday, the 14th of February. Although boarding students will be allowed to go off campus after school hours, certain procedures and protocols must be followed;

Each student must TAP their cards on the way out of campus

Cards must be Re-TAPPED upon entry into campus

Take Temperature

Temperature to be checked by front desk upon arrival into campus

Important Update for recently arrived students

Recently arrived students should visit G33 between 3:16PM and 4PM (open Monday to Thursday) as soon as possible to be fitted for or pick up their uniform package, if they have not done so already. Any questions can be emailed to Mr. Jaikumar at ajaikumar@brontecollege.ca. Students who were quarantined and missed orientation should visit the Front Desk on weekdays before 4pm for assistance, once their quarantine is complete.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

This month is Black History Month, a month dedicated to honour and celebrate the many accomplishments of Black Canadians and Americans, to remember the people and events in the history of the African Diaspora. To honour her accomplishments, our students are highlighting Viola Davis this week.

Viola Davis

Her Life

Viola Davis was born on August 11th, 1965 in St. Matthews, South Carolina. She was born on her grandmother's farm on the Singleton Plantation. Her father, Dan Davis, was a horse trainer, and her mother, Mary Alice, was a maid, factory worker and homemaker. As a child, Viola acted in many school productions and theatre competitions. She later studied acting at the Juilliard School.

Influences

Viola has been an amazing example for black girls everywhere. She has shown that you can be beautiful and strong at the same time, you can be confident and elegant in your natural features without shame. She has several nominations throughout her acting career including:

- 4 Academy Awards and won best supporting actress on "Fences"
- 3 British Academy Film Awards and won supporting actress
- 6 Golden Glob Awards and won for best supporting actress
- 5 Primetime Emmy Awards and won Outstanding lead actress in Drama series on "How to get away with murder"
- 10 Screen actors guild awards and won 6

She is one of the most decorated actresses in the industry.

Our Proud Moment

We would like to congratulate our ALUMNUS, Anton who has received two gold medals for graduating the top of his class in Electrical Engineering at Ontario Tech University.

One is from Faculty of Engineering and the other one is from Ontario Professional Engineers Foundation for Education. Anton came to Bronte all the way from Russia and Graduated in 2017.

Anton proudly recalls,;

"I have worked as a remote paid contractor for a company out West and I was responsible for completing an individual innovative technology project for them. Bronte has helped me prepare for university by expanding my technical vocabulary and preparing me for the university course load. Thank you!"

We are so proud of all that you have achieved Anton! Graduates, remember to follow us on our Bronte College LinkedIn page and share with us your success!

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON CAMPUS

'It's not Ice cream and it's not Plain Yogurt, its soft, smooth and delicious Frozen Yogurt'

Campus life staff at Bronte ensured that the students celebrated National Frozen Yogurt Day in style. Students were offered a selection of Frozen Yogurt flavours to choose from. Something to tickle every palate around.
