

It's March! Although it still feels like winter, spring is now officially around the corner. A few more weeks and we will have warmer and longer days! We at Bronte are looking forward to a fun Spring Break (7th – 18th March). Provided there are no changes from the Ontario Government, boarding students can sign up to attend a variety of excursions to many local destinations and experiences, including a trip to a Maple Syrup Festival and a showing of the Medieval Times in Toronto. Students can see the Campus Life team for more info!

Don't forget to move your clock forward as Daylight Savings begin on Sunday the 13th of March at 2:00 AM.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

The month of February marked the Black History Month, a month dedicated to honour and celebrate the many accomplishments of Black Canadians and Americans, to remember the people and events in the history of the African Diaspora. To honour his accomplishments, our students highlighted many famous personalities during the month. For their final share they chose:

Barack Obama

was born on August 4th, 1961, in Hawaii. He made history when he became the first African American to be elected as President of the United States of America (he served two terms in office). Obama earned a political science degree from Columbia University in 1983 and graduated from Harvard Law School in 1991. While he was a student at Harvard, he was the first Black editor of The Harvard Law Review. He spent time working with low-income residents of Chicago and working on housing developments.

He was elected to the Illinois State Senate in 1996 and to the United States Senate in 2004.

In 2008, he was elected President of the United States, making him the first African American in history to earn this position.

In 2009, he received the Nobel Peace Prize.
In 2012, he was reelected as President of the United States.
