

Easter is around the corner and a gentle reminder that all students and staff will have a long weekend off (No classes on Friday or Monday).

A fun fact about the Easter Bunny is that it's believed that it lays, decorates, and hides its eggs as a symbol of new life. Therefore, some children might enjoy Easter egg hunts as part of their celebration.

Bronte College would like to wish all those celebrating an Egg-cellent Easter. All students can enjoy a grand scrumptious feast that will take place for dinner on Sunday.

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON CAMPUS

This weekend students got to travel to Sky Zone, a local indoor trampoline park, where they jumped, flipped, and climbed their way through various activities. It was an evening full of laughter and exercise!

To celebrate National Pet Day, Bronte College brought in therapy dog Daisy from the St. John Ambulance Organization, along with her owner Devon, for students to come and grab some cuddles from this furry friend. The room was full of excitement and happiness.
