

With less than three weeks to the beginning of the new school year, staff at Bronte have been super busy getting everything ready and organized for our September 2022 intake. Our admissions manager hosted a virtual orientation session for all our new students and parents. If you missed it and didn't receive a recording please contact our admissions department for further details. Any new students who still need assistance with their Bronte email account or TEAMS should email guidance at mkarri@brontecollege.ca.
