

Although we are officially less than three weeks away from the official beginning of spring, it still feels like winter with cold and windy evenings. A few more weeks and we will have longer and warmer days due to the Daylight Saving time that begins on Sunday, the 12th of March 2023 at 2:00AM.

UNIVERSITY OF OTTAWA

On March 8th a representative from the University of Ottawa will be on campus to speak with students. Bronte College recently partnered with the University of Ottawa and there are many special arrangements just for Bronte students, including English Language test requirement exemptions. Students of African origin should be sure to ask about scholarship information. Find out details from the representative!

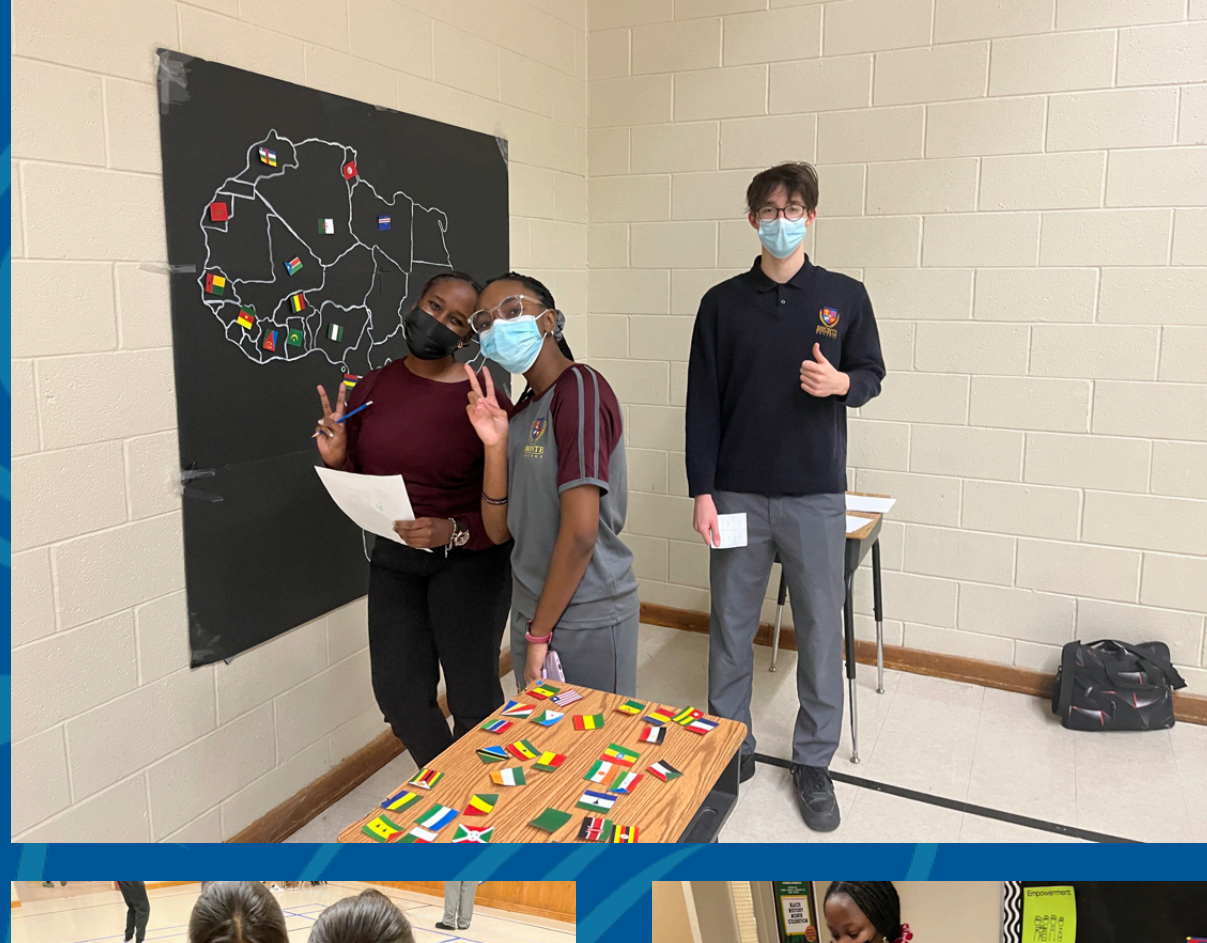

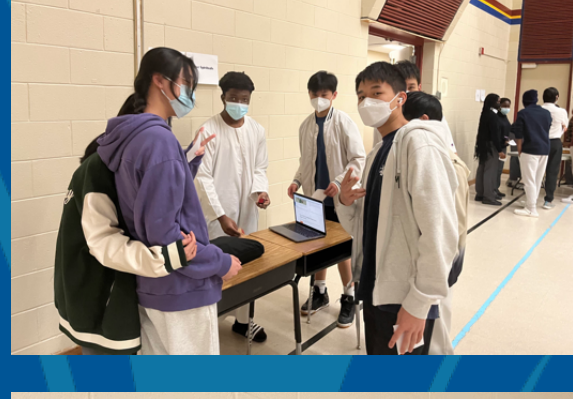

RE-ENROLMENT

Our admissions team would like to extend its appreciation to all those students that have completed their re-enrolment process and would like to remind all returning students that early registration is highly encouraged to ensure that you receive your room of choice.

Rooms for September have been allocated first to our February students who just arrived, followed by all returning students who have paid their deposit, and are now being allocated to new incoming September students. If you have not yet paid your fees for September 2023, please do so quickly to reserve your preferred room type.

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON CAMPUS

Our Student Athletic Council hosted a grand Black History Month celebration where they offered an array of cultural snacks, motivational speeches from our student speakers and many fun games.

Our students enjoyed a trip to the Medieval Times show in Toronto, where they experienced a night of medieval style jousting on horseback and a royal feast for dinner. Fun for all indeed!

We are super proud of our Food Committee members who successfully planned and executed their first bake sale this semester.
